90 Points • 2005 Old Vine Petite Sirah Lodi

Ripe fruit flavors veer toward the jammy, spicy side, supported by the firmly tannic structure.

87 Points • 2005 Old Vine Cuvee Contra Costa County

Clean, fresh and snappy, with tight, focused loamy earth, dusty berry, pepper, spice and light cedary oak.

87 Points • 2007 Chardonnay Carneros

Shows a ripe, smoky, mature mix of flavors, with toasty oak, ripe fig and melon, ending with sour lemon notes.

87 Points • 2006 Sauvignon Blanc Napa Valley

Spiced apple, peach, orange peel and Meyer lemon notes are ripe and fleshy, with fresh acidity.

87 Points • 2004 Old Vine Mataro Contra Costa County

Intense and well-structured, with plenty of cedar and toasty notes to accent the rustic plum and cherry flavors.

87 Points • 2007 Psalms Napa Valley

Tangy lemon-lime, spicy pear and quince notes are light and refreshing, with a mouthwatering juiciness.

WINEENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

91 Points • 2006 Pinot Noir

This is a silky, refined wine, rich in cherry, cola, mocha and spice flavors. Best now and for a few years.

90 Points • 2004 Old Vine Petite Sirah Lodi

The kind of Petite Sirah that's launched the variety to unheard of fame.

90 Points • 2003 Petite Sirah Russian River Valley

Dark, rich, bone dry, with sturdy tannins and good acids framing ripe flavors of blackberries, coffee and leather.

90 Points • 2004 Zinfandel Bigalow Vineyard

Here's a dry, very tannic young Zin, it seems to capture a taste of its place. The vines are said to be 120 years old.

90 Points • 2005 Old Vine Mataro Contra Costa County

The wine tastes like a good Zinfandel, with a smooth, full-bodied caress of sturdy tannins and brisk acidity.

88 Points • 2005 Old Vine Zinfandel Contra Costa County

A high quality Zin; Trinitas has worked with this wine for years, and this is their best ever.

88 Points • 2006 Pinot Blanc Russian River Valley

It has a rich, creamy mouthfeel, but it has a dry, steely character that makes it friendlier with food than a Chard.

87 Points • 2004 Old Vine Mataro Contra Costa County

It's thick and forward in blackberry, currant and cherry flavors, with a firm tannic structure, and very dry.

Wine & Spirits MAGAZINE

91 Points • 2005 Zinfandel Spinelli Vineyard

Sweet berry flavors give this old-fashioned, earthy zin lasting fruit impact. It has the festive holiday scent of evergreen boughs and tarry, bitter black tannins to balance all the fruit.
